VOTE ON FREE TOLLS REPEAL

Ballot Will Show Strength of Factions in Great Contest.

THREE DAYS' DEBATE.

Much Interest Manifested in Outcome of Present Struggle Over Wilson's Recommendation.

Washington, March 26.—With the opposing factions contesting every inch of ground, the House is scheduled today to begin the battle over President Wilson's proposal to repeal the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal act. A bitter and protracted debate, of probably three days, is expected.

The House met at 11 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual, to rush to final passage the rivers and harbors bill, which has been delaying the tolls controversy. There was a general understanding that the repeal bill would take the right of way early in the afternoon, and Congressman Adamson, chairman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, was ready to further the adoption of a special rule making the repeal in order.

This rule was reported by the Rules Committee. It gives privileged status to the repeal measure, introduced by Congressman Sims, of Tennessee, and provides that a vote on repeal shall be had after fifteen hours of debate. No opportunity to amend the repeal bill is proposed.

The preliminary skirmish occurs on the rule proper, and the vote thereon will be a fairly accurate test of the strength of those opposing and defending the Administration's program. Members of the Rules Committee indicated today that, while unwilling to extend the fifteen-hour limit of debate on the repeal proposal, they are willing to grant more than the customary forty minutes on the adoption of the rule. A longer time to discuss the rule, which is indirectly the repeal proposition, will give many members a chance to get in short speeches on the tolls controvery, under the guise of discussing the rule.

The line-up for and against repeal promises a spectacular debate in the House, the intensity of the fight increasing as the vote nears. It is probable the final vote will come late Saturday.

Partisans in the House who have heretofore opposed one another on practically every important question, were found fighting under the same banner today. There was no dividing line between parties, as on the tariff, or other Administration policies. Strong and resourceful Democrats were outspoken against the President, and other strong and resourceful Democrats were with the Chief Executive. The Republicans were split, with the majority however, apparently against the repeal. The Progressives, according to Leader Murdock, will vote almost solidly against the Administration repeal plan.

JOKE MAY COST MAN MIND.

Boys Turn Soot and Gravel-Filled Hose in His Face.

Cumberland, Md., March 26—James C. Cutter, a machinist, of Terra Alta, Va., was taken to Sylvan Retreat Insane Asylum yesterday, having been made at least temporarily insane by a practical joke two weeks ago. While seated asleep in a chair near a stove in the old Baltimore and Ohio Railroad round house, waiting to ask for work, it is alleged several boy employes filled the cock on an air hose with engine soot and fine gravel, then aimed it at Cutter's face, turned on the air and ran.

The soot and gravel struck him full in the face and his eyes when he opened them wide as he suddenly awakened. Tuesday, crazed with pain, he escaped from the hospital and ran away clothed only in a nightshirt. He fell exhausted on the street and was taken back to the hospital.

PUTS IN ELECTRIC SIGNALS.

Automatic Block to be Installed on Double Track Lines of Southern

President Fairfax Harrison announces that the Southern Railway will proceed immediately to install automatic electric block signals on 150 miles of double track including the following lines: Amherst to Whittles, Va., 57.3 miles; Atlanta to New Holland, Ga., 53.46 miles; Howell (Atlanta) to Austell, Ga., 15.5 miles; Citico (Chatetanooga) to Ooletewah Tenn., 13.4 miles, and Danville, Va., to Pelham, N. C., 9.3 miles.

The signals will be of the modern upper quadrant, three position type, now in use on the Southern between Charlotte and Greensboro, N. C., and being placed between Alexandria and Orange, Va., and between Knoxville and Morrostown, Tenn. In addition to providing every possible feature of safety in train operation, this system greatly increases the traffic capacity of the lines so equipped.

With the completion of electric signal systems on these lines, the Southern will have practically all its double track lines with this modern facility. On the lines for which signal installation has just been authorized, 120 miles are on the line between Washington and Atlanta while the remaining thirty miles are important traffic throats west of Atlanta and east of Chattanooga.

EXPLOSION ON SCHOONER.

All Members of Crew on Maui Believed to Have Been Lost.

Honolulu, March 26.—The entire crew of the inter-island steam-schooner Maui, is believed to have gone down with the vessel when she blew up in Pearl harbor last night. A search was being made for the survivors today, but no trace was found of any of the crew, which is believe to have numbered at least thirty.

The Maui left here with a cargo of explosives. Frof Fort Kahmehamena it appeared that the vessel was ablaze, and then a terrific explosion was heard. The vessel blew up and sank immediately. The Maui's boilers are believed to have exploded.

The Maui was built in San Francisco in 1898. She was a steel schooner of 631 tons, and was used in island trade.

TAKEN AS A TRAIN ROBBER.

Prisoner Had Bank Books Showing Deposits of $24,000.

Greenville, S. C., March 26.—John Radclie, was arrested by detectives near here yesterday in connection with the robbery of a Queen and Cresecent Express and mail train near Birmingham, Ala., on February 19. He denied knowledge of the crime, but bank books showing deposits of $24,000 to his credit in Greenville and Atlanta banks were found among the prisoner's effects, according to the detectives.

Two men recently were arrested in Atlanta charged with connection with the robbery, which is said to have netted three bandits in the neighborhood.

Russian Editor Jailed.

St. Petersburg, March 26.—Fines amounting to $69,825 were imposed upon 374 newspapers and other periodicals, 226 issues were confiscated, 63 editors were imprisoned, and 20 newspapers were compelled to cease publication in Russia in the last year, according to an official report made public recently. The governor of Kieff was particularly active in prosecuting the press, largely on account of the Beoillis case, having fined 41 newspapers to the amount of $5,062, confiscated five issues, and imprisoned 14 editors.

An instance of the severity of the censorship was the confiscation of a recent issue of a paper at Rostov-on-Don for publishing a telegram from Vienna stating that it was rumored that the heir to the Servian throne had arrived in St. Petersburg on a visit.

Temporary Secretary.

MUTINY IN ULSTER LAID TO BLUNDER

British War Secretary Resigns, Assuming All the Blame.

BUT IS REINSTATED.

Stormy Scenes in House of Commons—Debate Bitter—Churchill Earns Rebuke From Speaker.

London, March 26.—A conference of practically all the general officers of the army in England is in progress at the War Office today. The purpose of the conference was not stated, but in Dublin, General Gough declared the officers would hold the war council to its promises.

The atmosphere was far from cleared today. The question was still, "Shall the army rule England?"

The general impression is that Premier Asquith's belated repudiation of the "Gough treaty" in the commons yesterday, only temporarily averts the downfall of his cabinet.

Many liberals regard the retention of Colonel Seely as war minister as a most serious blunder. The premier repudiated his temporizing with the officers stationed in Ireland, but by failing to accept Colonel Seely's resignation, it is believed Asquith placed the government in a position from which it will not be able to emerge without disruption.

The resignations of Field Marshall Sir John French and General Ewart are momentarily expected. They are said to be incensed at the temporing and the withdrawal of the promises given the officers. The action is regarded as conducive to anything but good discipline.

It is declared that the officers of the Irish commands will never consent to fight Ulster.

London, March 26.—The government has published its promised statement of its dealings with the revolting officers of the Third Cavalry Brigade, and the House of Commons held another heated and disorderly session.

Between the documents presented and the various statements drawn from the Cabinet of Ministers, the vital facts of the affair were made clear. They reveal a comedy or tragedy, of errors perpetrated by Colonel Seely, Secretary of State for War, and Sir Arthur Paget, commanding the troops in Ireland.

Colonel Seely took all the blame upon his own shoulders. He frankly declared that he had made a great mistake. His written assurance to Gen. Herbert Gough that the government "must retain its rights to use all the force of the Crown in Ireland or elsewhere to maintain order and support the civil powers in the ordinary execution of their duty, but has no intention whatever of taking advantage of this right in order to crush political opposition to the policy or principles of the Home Rule bill," was given without the knowledge of the Cabinet, and contrary to its policy.

The War Secretary tendered his resignation to Mr. Asquith, but the premier refused to accept it. The government has withdrawn Colonel Seely's guarantee, according to the statements made by Viscount Morley in the House of Lords, and Sir Edward Grey told the House of Commons that the government's decision would be made known to General Gough tomorrow. Thus the situation with respects to General Gough and his 59 comrades who sent in their papers is still in a state of suspense.

The most important revelations of the day were to the effect that the government did plan an important military and naval demonstration upon Ulster. Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, confirmed the reports that he had ordered the Third battle squadron and a torpedo flotilla to Irish waters, but explained that when the military arrangements had been successfully carried out he countermanded the orders by wireless—an explanation which the Unionists received with jeers.

The blunder General Paget made appears to have been in giving a practical ultimatum to the officers of the cavalry brigade, to say whether they would take active service in Ulster or accept dismissal. Colonel Seely freely admits that his error was in yielding to General Gough's demand for a written assurance that the army would not be used to suppress the covenanters.

WOULD ISSUE BONDS.

People of Alexandria County Clamor for Public Improvements.

Two hundred men assembled last night in the Alexandria County Courthouse at a mass meeting attended by delegates from virtually all of the county's business and civic associations and declared that the county should issue bonds.

A better water system, more schools, better gas service, and lower rates were asserted by the various speakers to be the most urgent needs of the county. That the bond issue should be favorably voted upon it, was explained, has long been recognized by the county's population, and the thing to determine now is, "Who shall spend the money and how shall it be spent?"

Another mass meeting is to be held next Monday night in the courthouse. State Senator R. E. Thornton, of Fairfax; Delegate J. Fred Birrell, of Alexandria, and Representative C. C. Carlin are expected to speak.

Meanwhile a committee appointed last night will endeavor to gather all the associations in the county under the banner of the Alexandria County Service Association in the campaign for the bond issue and the improvements. The committee is composed of W. W. Mallorie, president of the organization; E. L. Bennett, secretary; Lloyd Everett, W. K. Handy, J. T. Manning, and J. S. Swindell.

Speeches were made last night by Mesrs. Handy, Swindell, Bennett, Manning, C. H. Greathouse, and French T. Marye, the latter representing the Park Lane Citizens' Association.

The total cost of the construction will be $116,000.

DEATH OF "BOB."

"Bob," the huge specimen of the feline race, belonging to Captain George Young, is dead. "Bob" had many acquaintances, as nearly everybody who entered Captain Young's store had something pleasant to say to the Grimalkin. Unlike most of his genus, "Bob" was not a catawauler, and was never known to disturb the slumbers of the genus homo; hence he was not a target for bootjacks, brushes, etc., during the hour when graveyards are said to yawn. He passed most of his time in taking naps, or rubbing against his acquaintances at his owner's place of business. "Bob" was not of the ordinary breed of felines. His progenitors came from the Isle of man, and was known as a Manx cat, which have abbreviated caudal appendages. "Bob" had merely a suspicion of that member.

VILLA FORCED OUT OF GOMEZ PALACIO

Federals Show Strength by Recapturing Town From Rebels.

TERRIBLE SETBACK.

Huerta Claims to Have Enemy Surrounded and Promises to Recoup His Losses in Past.

Juarez, March 26.—A message received from the constitutional army attacking Torreon, states that a federal movement in force against the center of Villa's rebel army resulted in the recapture of Gomez Palacio and the repulse of 3,000 rebels at El Virjel, six miles north. General Villa, however, said he had Gomez Palacion surrounded and would retake the suburb. He ordered 5,000 hand grenades and more ammunition rushed to him at once in order to renew the fighting.

The rebel repulse is believed to have been inflicted by the fresh troops which have been rushed to Torreon from Mexico City. The attack on Gomez Palacio has not interferred with the fighting by Benavides on the left wing, and his men stil are pounding away at the steel cars which are being used as breastworks by the Federals inside of the town. Two-thirds of the rebel army has been fighting on the left wing, and only a small third of the total force participated in the first defeat of the campaign, the recapture of Gomez Palacio and the railroad roundhouse by the Federals, who marched across Nazas river in the face of a heavy rifle and machine gun fire, attacked and retook the little town, which hovers against a hill to the northwest of Torreon.

Villa's order for retreat was the first he had given since he retreated from Chihuahua after he had been given a decisive defeat by the federals within that town. He withdrew to El Verjel to reorganize his attack, and sent his men back to the fight late this evening. Gomez Palacion is not of especial importance in itself, but it commands the approach to torreon from the north and would permit the Federals to execute a flanking movement against the main command of rebels unless it be retaken.

Two hundred Federals are said to have paid the price of victory late yesterday evening, when they were executed by rebels after they had been hustled back to the rear when the renew attack of the rebels on Torreon started. The Federals had been sent out to repulse the Zaragossa brigade in its attacks on Cercens, the poor quarter of Torreon, after the general attack on the town was renewed, and were surrounded and captured.

The two separate engagements of the day divided the attacking army of Villa into two columns. One, under his personal command and with General Torbio Ortega directing the frontal attack, was fighting around Gomez Palacio, retreating slowly and stubbornly before the slate-colored soldiers of Huerta, who shuffled over the remaining spans of the railroad bridge and under cover of the machine guns and artillery on the Sierra De La Pelar. The attack came from the south and southwest, where Villa's forces were least expecting it, and had the federals followed up their victory, they could have flanked and captured many of the rebels.

El Paso, March 26.—Miguel Diebold, of the Mexican Federal consular service, said that he had been officially informed that the rebels were repulsed with heavy loss at Torreon, and that some of them were driven back 20 miles. Other advices from the front were mixed in character, but, out of the medley, schooled observers here drew the conclusion that the rebels met at Torreon and Gomez Palacio an enemy in no wise inferior, and that their attack had been checked at the outset of the battle proper.

MAY LOSE JOBS AT NAVY YARD.

Defeat of Bill For Two Superdreadnaughts Would Cause Deep Cut in Force.

Eight hundred or more men, one-third of the force now employed at the Washington Navy Yard, would be forced out of work by July 1, should Congress fail to pass the pending bill providing for two superdreadnaughts. If Congress should provide for only one big battleship about half that number of mechanics would lose their places. Should there be delay in the enactment of this legislation furloughs would have to be given to a large part of the working force pending the assembly of material for guns to be made for the armament of the warships.

The prospective dismissal of 100 men about April 1, to put the navy yard on a normal working basis, was estimated with the expectation of making guns for two dreadnaughts. Extensive reductions in the force would be made necessary should there be failure of legislation, or the provision be cut to one battleship. Assembling of material for gun making cannot be accomplished without some time being allowed to the foundries and contractors to make castings and other parts.

GOVERNOR SIGNS PRIMARY BILL

New Law Will Not Take Effect Until January 1st, 1915.

MONEY FOR LAWYERS.

Among Measures Approved is Bill Allowing Reversionary Interest to County in Poor House Lot.

Richmond, Va., March 26.—Fifty acts of the recent General Assembly were signed by Governor Stuart yesterday. These include the chairopractice act, the lime grinding bill, increase in pay of jurors, the primary election law, and provisions for payment of special allowances aggregating $16,400 to the attorneys appointed by the former governor to prosecute in the Allen cases. The Governor still has on his desk a number of enrolled bills passed by the General Assembly, into which he is making careful study. He has ten days from the final adjournment on March 20 in which to dispose of these matters.

The new primary act contains a special clause providing that it shall go into effect on January 1, 1915. As a result, therefore, the new provisions will not apply to the spring primary in Richmond for Mayor and City Council, the summer primary in Richmond for the Administrative Board, or to primaries in different sections of the State for members of Congress prior to the November general election. In all such cases the act of 1912 will apply, with such supplementary regulations as will make that almost incoherent law intelligible.

The act in regard to the attorneys employed by Governor Mann in the Allen cases, as finally adopted, carries $4,000 each to J. C. Wysor, John S. Draper, and W. S. Poague; $2,000 to S. Floyd Landreth and $1,200 to W. W. Coxe, and S. F. Cocke.

Among the bills signed by the Governor was senate bill 366 which grants to the county of Alexandria revisionary interest of Commonwealth in poorhouse lot.

BOY ENJOYED PISTOL BATTLE.

Says he Wasn't Scared in Fight With Police.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 26.—"Shucks, no, I wasn't scared," said 15-year-old Ernest McWilliams, who engaged the police in a gun battle Tuesday, when seen at the hospital yesterday. The boy received a number of wounds, but none of them is considered fatal.

"I went into Ed. Tetzel's gun store three weeks ago and asked for a job. The old geeser threatened to kick me out of the store and I told him I would get even, I guess I did, when you figure up the broken window glass and the damage done by the policemen's bullets, not to mention the ammunition I wasted.

"I didn't go into the store to steal anything and I didn't try to wound the police every time I fired. The only times I didn't shoot over their heads was when one would hit me with a bullet and I got peeved. Then I would try to lay a copper out.

"Oh, I had a great time until that wound in my leg bled so much that I began to get dizzy and then I gave up.

"The whole thing was just as I planned it after a moving picture film showing two boys firing on the police when caught in a store, only I didn't intend to get hit."

McWilliams said he came here from Poplar Bluff, Mo.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

One of the most brilliant weddings Alexandria has witnessed in recent years was solemnized last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church, when Miss Roxie Doniphan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Slaughter Doniphan, became the bride of Lieutenant Daniel N. Swan, Jr., U. S. A.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Ferns and bride's roses were the chief decorations. The chancel was banked with palms. Preceding the bridal party to the altar were little Miss Ruth Gary, cousin of the bride, acting as flower girl, who carried a basket of red rose buds, and Master Jack Doniphan, brother of the bride, who served as ringbearer.

Baskets of white roses tied with long white ribbon streamers, marked the pews. Mrs. George E. Warfield, rendered the musical program, while the guests were assembling. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. Warfield played Lohengrin's wedding march, and "O Promise Me" softly during the ceremony, while Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, Mr. Howland R. Gary, of Boston, and was met at the chancel by her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a most becoming and exquisite creation of white brocaded crepe de chine, made with a court train and trimmed with rose point lace and pearl embroidery. Her point net veil fell from a dutchess cap of real lace arranged with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Lucy Gary Webb, cousin of the bride, was attired in a gown of white charmeuse and chiffon with pearl trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of white roses tied with white ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Delia Phillips, Alexandria; Miss Lee Gary Rucker, Washington; Miss Christina Furnival, Rapidan, Va.; Miss Beuford Brice, of Washington, all of whom wore frocks of white taffeta trimmed with white chiffon bodice with bands of red rosebuds and pearls and their flowers were Richmond roses tied with red ribbon.

The bridegroom had for his best man, Lieut. Cedrick M. S. Skene, U. S. A.

The ushers were Lieut. Douglas C. Cordiner, U. S. A.; Lieut. Oliver L. Spiller, U. S. A.; Lieut. Carlton U. Edwards, U. S. A.; Lieut. John H. Lindt, U. S. A. with Messrs. Alexander S. Doniphan, Jr., brother of the bride; George Bryan Pitts and Edward Lee Kemper, as honorary ushers.

Mrs. Alexander Slaughter Doniphan, mother of the bride, wore black charmeuse trimmed with flouncing of cut jet with venetian point.

After the ceremony a beautiful reception was held in the auditorium of the Elks' Home which was attended by about two hundred guests. The hall was effectively decorated with red and white roses and ferns. An elaborate buffet luncheon was served. Misses Mary and Nellie Robertson, of Washington, D. C., wearing dresses of blue taffeta veiled in white chiffon and trimmed with pink rosebud banding, assisted in serving punch. Dancing was indulged in until midnight, music being furnished by a section of the United States Marine Band.

Shortly before midnight the bride and groom left for an extended western trip, and April 6, they will sail from San Francisco for Honolulu, where Lieut. Swan is now stationed.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corley, and son, Frank Corley, Richmond, Va.; Howland R. Gary, Boston; Daniel N. Swan, father of the bridegroom, Fort Myer, Va.; John Walker, Culpeper, Va.; Mrs. John W. Aultman, Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs.

W. P. KERRICK LOCATED

Missing Alexandrian is in New Mexico and at the Point of Death.

M. F. Kerrick, brother of W. P. Kerrick, who mysteriously disappeared from this city, has received intelligence that the missing man is in Isleta, New Mexico. The dispatch also stated that the latter is ill and at the point of death. M. F. Kerrick will proceed to Isleta as soon as possible. The dispatch was sent by J. A. McKenew.

Kerrick mysteriously vanished from Alexandria on February 13th, and although his relatives made every effort to locate him, his whereabouts remained a mystery to them until today. The police department labored for several weeks in the search, in which the authorities of other cities joined. Pictures of the missing man were sent broadcast.

The dispatch did not mention the nature of Kerrick's illness, and no one at present can tell why he wended his way so far from his home.

The missing man before he made his exit from this city had been indisposed, though not so much so as to be confined to his home.

He is a contracting carpenter by occupation and a member of the First Baptist Church.

TURNER DEFEATS WILLIS.

Big Crowd Sees Washington Boy Win From Finland Champion.

A big crowd of Alexandria men attended the smoker given by the Old Dominion Boat Club at the Opera House last night when the wrestling between Joe Turner, of Washington, middle weight champion of the world, and Joe Willis, champion of Finland, was staged. The Washington boy was the winner but it required all of his skill to defeat the husky lad from the other side. The first bout was in the Graeco-Roman style and Willis was the winner in 37 minutes. The second was the catch-as-catch-can style and Turner threw his man in 27 minutes. The third was the same as the second and Turner was again victorious in 19 minutes. Tom Kennedy, of Washington, acted as referee.

DEATH OF J. A. JAVINS

Nonagenarian Pays Debt of Nature at His Home in this City Last Night.

James A. Javins, the oldest resident of this city, died suddenly at his home, 112 North Pitt street, last night. Mr. Javins was in the 95th year of his age, having celebrated his 94th birthday on the 15th instant.

The deceased was a widower and had survived all his children. He married Miss Kidwell, of this city, many years ago.

Mr. Javins was born in Fairfax county, near Alexandria, and came here when a boy, becoming an apprentice in 1835 to Wm. R. Ball, who was a contracting bricklayer, and at one time collector of taxes in Alexandria. Mr. Javins helped to erect the old Columbus street court house which a few years ago was razed and modern dwellings erected on tehe site He also worked upon the old Friendship engine house on Columbus street, near King. For many years he followed his avocation as a bricklayer, and after he had become an octogenarian would occassionally work at that occupation.

He was for a number of years employed at the depot of the Southern Railway in this city, but some time ago was injured by a door which was blown against him by a high wind, since which time he had had no regular occupation.

Mr. Javins was in many ways a remarkable man. Although well up in his tenth decade, he could read without the aid of spectacles, and his step was firm. He was walking about his neighborhood yesterday

He had long outlived the majority of his cotemporaries, and the companions of his early manhod still in the land of living could be numbered upon his fingers.

His mild disposition and courteous demeanor made him a welcome guest wherever he went, and his familiar figure will be missed by many friends and acquaintances.

Mr Javins was orderly sergeant of the Mount Vernon Guards at the outbreak of the civil war, but when the federal troops made a descent upon the city May 24, 1861, and the Alexandria boys had to leave home in a hurry, Mr. Javins was confined to his bed by illness and, like several other members of the companies of this city, who were ill at that time, he was left behind.

Although he had seen so many years, Mr. Javins did not seem to pay the penalty of old age. When asked by his friends concerning his physical condition, he always replied pleasantly to the effect that he was all right. He was apparently in his normal condition yesterday, and those who met him were not aware of the fact that the wheels of life were about to stand still.

Mr. Javins was for many years an active member of the old Friendship Engine Company, and at the time of his death was a member of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association.

OTHER DEATHS.

Robert Sorrel, 74 years old, for many years employed as a foreman by W. A. Smoot & Co., lumber dealers, died yesterday afternoon at his home in north Fairfax street extended. He is survived by his widow and six children.

Thomas Evans, 53 years old, until recently connected with the Public Service Corporation, of Newark, N. J., died yesterday afternoon at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Watkins, 1011 King street. He is survived by his widow and two brothers Frank Evans, of Alexandria, and Milton Evans, of Washington. Mr. Evans was a son of the late Paul R. Evans, and was a civil engineer.

Henry King died in Baltimore yesterday. The deceased was in his 52d year. Mr. King was a brother-in-law of Messrs. Samuel and Louis Bendheim, of this city, the three named having married the Misses Berwanger.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

ANGRY WITH VIRGINIA.

Delegate Ward Wants Maryland Oystermen Protected in Pocomoke Sound.

Annapolis, Md., March 26.—Delegate Ward, of Somerset county, is "all het up" about the action of the Virginia oyster police in harrassing Maryland oystermen in Pocomoke Sound, and of the assumption by Virginia of jurisdiction over the waters of the sound. He wants Governor Goldsborough to see about it and to take steps to establish Maryland's authority over the sound. Today he introduced a joint resolution declaring that:

"The State of Virginia in derogation of the rights of the State of Maryland has been and is wrongfully assuming and exercising jurisdiction over the waters of the State of Maryland in Pocomoke Sound, and is through its police authorities, preventing citizens of Maryland from taking oysters and exercising other rights of fishery in the waters of Pocomoke Sound, within the bounaries of Maryland, and has driven citizens of Maryland, engaged in catching oysters and exercising other rights of fishery, from those waters and precluded them from their just rights in the premises:

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, jointly by the House of Delegates and the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland, that it is the duty of the State of Maryland to protect its territory and waters and the rights of its citizens therein, and particularly to protect the rights of its citizens to catch and take oysters and to exercise their rights of fishery in Pocomoke Sound, and that, to the end that the territory and waters of the State and the said rights of the citizens of Maryland herein shall be fully protected, it is hereby recommended by the General Assembly of Maryland that the Governor of the State of Maryland take such steps upon the part and on behalf of the State of Maryland as shall effectually protect and secure the rights of the State and of its citizens in the premises."

Bequeathed Body to College.

Richmond, Va., March 26.—Before making doubly sure of his death by drinking an ounce of laudanum and then turning on the gas, Nathan White, 25 years old, seated himself before a table by the side of his bed in his room at 100 East Marshall street, yesterday and in a steady hand wrote the following remarkable note:

"To whom it may concern: Wishing to be of some benefit to humanity I hereby bequeath my body to some medical college. (Signed),

Most respectfully,

"NATHAN WHITE."

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS

MISS TYLER LOSES PLACE.

B. A. Williams Commissioned to Take her Place.

Washington, March 26.—All hope of Miss Mattie Tyler, granddaughter of President Tyler, to be retained as postmistress of the little town of Courtland, Va., vanished yesterday when the Postoffice Department commissioned B. A. Williams to take her place. Mr. Williams visited the Postoffice Department today with Congressman Holland, of the Norfolk district, and got his commission after bond had been approved.

No fight was made in Miss Tyler's behalf by any member of the Virginia delegation. Congressman Holland, in whose district Courtland is located, said that in recommending Mr. Williams he carried out the wishes of the people of that community.

An effort was made some years ago to displace Miss Tyler, but President Roosevelt blocked it. A postoffice inspector, who was sent to Courtland to make an investigation, reported that the sentiment of the community is against the retention of Miss Tyler, in office, though much sympathy is expressed in her behalf. It is understood here that the salary Miss Tyler received as postmistress was all he had to support herself and sister.

So far as can be learned the question of removing Miss Tyler was never taken up with President Wilson."

Winchester, Va., March 26.—John Gano, aged 55, a wealthy Frederick county farmer, died Tuesday from injuries suffered later in the day, when a bale of hay fell from a loft upon his chest. He had fallen off a wagon, and the bale, weighing 90 pounds, struck him as he lay on the ground.

Miner Made State Examiner.

Richmond, Va., March 26.—State Commissioner of Labor James B. Doherty yesterday named A. G. Lucas, of South Richmond, State Mine Inspector, under the act passed by the General Assembly of 1912. The money for the maintenance of the office was appropriated by the last Legislature. Mr. Lucas is an expert miner, having served as foreman at the Gayeton Mines for seven years, and previous to that he served in West Virginia mines. He begins his duties April 1. He will be Virginia's first mine examiner.

Campell Appointed Judge.

Richmond, Va., March 26.—Preston W. Campbell, of Abingdon, was named yesterday by Governor Stuart to succeed Judge F. B. Hutton, as judge of the Twenty-third circuit, composed of Washington and Smyth counties, and which after July 1 will embrace Scott county. Judge Hutton retires to practice law.

Judge Campbell is at present Commonwealth's Attorney of Washington county, and he is expected to resign that position and to enter immediately upon his new duties. He is 45 years old, a native of Washington county, and served as a member of the State Constitutional Convention.

Prince Adalbert, third son of Emperor William, was stricken yesterday with an acute attack of stomach and intestinal catarrah.

ACTION BY NEWPORT NEWS.

Protest Made Against Awarding of Contracts to Northern Cities.

Newport News, Va., March 26—Declaring that the action was unjust and unfair to the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, and that it is currently reported suc haction was taken for political purposes and to "erect ramparts for the Democratic party in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts at the expense of the State of Virginia, which is accordingly penalized for being safely Democratic," resolutions were adopted at a mass-meeting of citizens, held at the Academy of Music last night, calling upon Congress to cause an investigation into the circumstances under which and why Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels awarded the contracts for building the supply ship and transport to the Philadelphia and Boston navy yards, respectively. Further, the resolution requests that Congress refuse to vote the appropriation of $400,000 asked by Secretary Daniels for putting the yards in shape in order that they may be able to build the vessels.

MET DEATH IN MANHOLE.

Electrical Worker Electrocuted in Network of Wires.

Philadelphia, March 26.—Confused in the identities of wires about to be repaired, George Reynolds, 30 years old, of No. 1008 Brown street was electrocuted shortly after noon yesterday in a manhole on Lombard street below Seventh street. Too late to save his companion, from instant death, Thomas Markey, employed with Reynolds on a repair gang of the Philadelphia Electric Company, dropped into the manhole and with protected hands dragged away the wire whose current was burning Reynolds' body. Policeman George Ryan, of the Third District, ran to the help of Markey, and between them they managed to drag the body from the manhole in time to prevent its mutilation by flames.

Reynolds had entered the manhole to make the investigation for the repair gang. Markey stood above him waiting to offer assistance. Suddenly he saw Reynolds, who had reached into the network of wires, thrown violently to one side, fire bursting out upon the sleeves of his coat. Markey shouted for help and lowered himself to Reynold's side. At the Pennsylvania Hospital it was declared that death had resulted instantly.

The policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America at Chicago yesterday agreed on a plan which is expected to maintain industrial peace in the bituminous coal districts of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. It was settled that the men are to remain at work under the present agreement and adjust the new scale in local district conferences with the employers, abandoning at least, for this year, any attempt to do so in a joint conference of the four States. Arrangements were made for a conference of Illinois coal operators and miners at Peoria, Ill., and it was said that conferences in other districts would take place immediately. The wage agreements are made for two years. The present agreement expires April 1. Both miners and operators assert that there is no danger of a strike.

OPPOSITION TO MR. HART.

The Richmond Journal finds that Mr. John M. Hart, whose nomination to the collectorship of the Western Revenue District was sent to the Senate Saturday, is in a pretty bad way. It is understood that both the Virginia senators will oppose the confirmation of Mr. Hart. This almost certainly means the withdrawal of his name by President Wilson. "Senatorial courtesy" forbids a senator voting to confirm an appointment which is opposed by the senators from the appointee's State.

In addition to the very pressing trouble which confronts him in the Senate, Mr. Hart appears to have lost out with a considerable portion of the home folk. The Roanoke World-News, which warmly urged his appointment, recently broke with him because of his opposition to the "red light" bill at the recent session of the Legislature. Thus the World-News, which is one of the principal anti-organization papers of Virginia, is backing Senator Martin and Senator Swanson in their opposition to the confirmation of Mr. Hart's nomination.

NEGRO POPULATION OF LARGE CITIES.

The Philadelphia Ledger puts together some interesting figures as to the negro population in the largest cities of the country.

Washington, D. C., heads the list, with the largest negro population, the total being 94,446, as against 91,709 in New York city, although the total population in New York is fourteen or fifteen times that of Washington.

Other cities show the following population of negroes:

New Orleans, 89,262; Baltimore 84,749; Philadelphia, 84,459; Memphis, 52,441; Birmingham, 52,305; Atlanta, 51,902; Richmond, Va., 46,723; Chicago, 44,103; St. Louis, 43,960, Louisville, 40,522; Nashville 36,523; Indianapolis, 21,816.

In proportion to population there are almost exactly as many negroes in Baltimore as in Louisville. New Orleans has a considerably larger proportion, while Memphis, Birmingham, Atlanta, and Richmond have many more negroes, although a smaller population than Louisville.

The back-to-the-land theory of Professor Washington is being followed to some extent by Southern negroes, but the concentration in the cities continues very large

FATAL ACCIDENTS.

Block, and Tree Fall and Each Claims a Victim,

Wilmington, Del., March 25.—Struck on the side of the head by a wooden block which had dropped 65 feet from the top of a crane in the plant of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Corporation yesterday, Frederick Wheeler, aged 35, of New York, died three hours later at the Delaware Hospital from a fractured skull. He was a structural iron worker and came here six weeks ago to do some work at the local plant. He was standing under a crane and a workman at the top was holding the block over which a rope was being drawn. The man's fingers were caught under the orpe and when he pulled them out the block slipped from his grasp.

Hagerstown, Md., March 26.—John Fisher, aged 46, of Eagles Mills, was caught by a tree which he and Clayton Poffenberger were felling yesterday on David H. Snively's farm, near Keedysville, and killed, his breast being crushed. He leaves a widow and two children.

Three men were killed and part of the plant of the Pennsylvania Trojan Powder Company, five miles north of Allentown, Pa., was wrecked yesterday by an explosion. The cause of the explosion is unknown as the only men working in the buildings destroyed were killed. One of the victims was thrown 400 feet into an adjoining field. Concrete, sheet iron and lumber were showered over an area of 1,000 feet in diameter. Twenty small buildings of concrete or sheet iron made up the plant, and eight of them were wrecked.

TO IMPROVE PRETTY HAIR AND BEAUTIFY UGLY HAIR.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, a delightful liquid hair dressing, is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. No matter how pretty your hair now is, it can be made to look even better by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. To those who mourn because the hair is stringy, dull, lusterless, and homely, Harmony Hair Beautifier will prove a real blessing and pleasure. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it glossy, silky-soft and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds that "stay put." It overomes the olly smell of the hair with a dainty, true-rose fragrance.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before bruishing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Hair Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores and in this town by Wm. P. Taylor, druggist, 616 King street.

There is a Great Difference in Tobaccos

Tuxedo is the Mildest, Sweetest, Most Pleasant Smoke in the World, Because—

First—No one but the makers of Tuxedo is willing to spend the money necessary to buy the mildest, choicest, most thoroughly aged, selected Burley tobacco.

Second—No one but the makers of Tuxedo knows how to treat this Burley tobacco so that every bit of pleasantness and goodness remains in the tobacco and every bit of unpleasantness and harshness is taken out.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have been born, and are clamoring for your patronage.

No imitation is ever as good as the original. No amount of advertising, no amount of bluster and bluff, can ever make an imitation tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

If you are not a pipe smoker, you are denying yourself the greatest smoking pleasure known to man. One week of Tuxedo will give you more enjoyment than you have ever had—and at the end of the week your nerves will be better and your general health will have improved. Try Tuxedo this week!

NEWS OF THE DAY

Two men are dead and two are badly injured as the result of an explosion in the engine room at the S. Kann, Sons & Company department store, Washington, yesterday. The dead are Alexander Gragie, 31 years old, Charles and Williams streets, Brentwood, Md. Harry Rusell, 47 years old, 501 N street southwest. The men were scalded when a cylinder head on an engine blew off, filing the room with steam.

Wearing a skirt lined with secret pockets, in one of which a burglar's "jimmy" was found, an attractive looking girl of 19, giving her name as Charlotte Paine, was arraigned in the Manhattan Avenue police court, Williamsburg, N. Y., as a burglar. In another of her pockets a police matron discovered twenty keys. The young woman was arrested for attempted robbery, and she fought her captors like a tiger.

Officers with bloodhounds are searching for two robbers who Tuesday night poured hot grease on the bare feet of William Lyles, proprietor of a store near Cheneyville, La., in an effort to make him tell the combination of his safe. The men were frightened away after Lyles was unconscious. The safe is said to have contained several thousand dollars. Lyles' condition is serious.

Can you boil an egg on a cake of ice? Certainly. All you need to know is how to manipulate ultra violet rays of proper angstrom units on the egg. Be sure and have your violet roys ultra, though. Dr. W. L. Bervie did it yesterday at the laboratory of the Harvard Canter Commission at Cambridge. He exposed an egg and a chunk of ice to waves of a length of about 2,750 angstrom units. After a time the egg was hard boiled, sure enough, and the ice wasn't melted.

The "White Wolf" the Chinese brigand, and his followers yesterday captured and sacked the city of Lung Chuhchai, in the province of Shensi. They killed 230 of the inhabitants and wounded and captured many hundreds more.

President Wilson last night was warned of the departure for Washington of a second "Coxey's army" which, it is said, will start April 16 from Massillon, Ohio, the starting point for the first "army" twenty years ago. "General" J. S. Coxey, of Massillon, the leader, mailed the President a letter telling of his plans, and inclosing a pamplet on "The Coxey plan of setting the idle to work on roads and other public improvemets." The "army" expects to arrive in Washington May 21, Coxey says, to petition the President and Congress for measures which will give work to the unemployed.

MONTICELLO NOT FOR SALE.

Mr. Levy Denies He Will Part With Home of Jefferson.

Washington, March 26.—Representative Jefferson Levy denies that he had stated he was willing to sell Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, of which he is the present owner.

Reports had stated that Representative Levy had named a price for the historic property to the Senate committee on Public Buildings. "Monticello is not for sale to the government or anybody else,' said Mr. Levy. "The only thing I have said is that if Congress shsould pass a bill seeking to acquire Monticello, I should be obliged to give the matter serious consideration, for the bill would be construed as representing the people."

THIS STOMACH REMEDY REMARKABLY SUCCESSFUL.

You know us—your home druggist. You know we wouldn't guarantee any remedy to relieve indigestion or dyspepsia, or money back, unless we felt the utmost confidence in that remedy. Therefore, when we offer you Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets with this proof of our faith in them, it leaves you no room for hesitation or doubt.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the fact that they contain, among other things, Bismuth and Pepsin, two ingredients endorsed by the medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of stomach ills. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check heartburn and distress, stimulate the secretions of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich, red blood. In a short time they tend to restore the stomach to a naturally comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They also benefit the bowels.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town by Wm. P. Taylor, druggist, 616 King street.

TO MODIFY ITINERANCY.

Attempt to be Made to Extend Pastoral Term Over 4 Years.

Baltimore, March 26.—An attempt will be made at this session of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, which opened yesterday morning in St. Paul's Church, to modify the present ironclad rule of the itinerancy system of the church.

The Rev. Dr. Carlton D. Harris and others will introduce a memorial to give the bishops power to extend the limit of a preacher's stay on one charge beyond four years where the circumstances justify it.

Another group of men is preparing a resolution to prevent any preacher to hold the office of presiding elder longer than four years. They state that after four years as presiding elders they should return to the ranks of active pastors. They state that the prime object of the Methodist preacher is to preach and to do pastoral work, and that a preacher who long holds the office of presiding elder gets entirely out of the atmosphere and spirit of pastoral and evangelical work.

The conference was formally opened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning with Bishop Denny in the chair. He connected a religious service and made a short address. The conference roll was called and the nominations of the presiding elders for the committees were elected.

The characters of the preachers were passed without charges except in the case of W. H. H. Joyce, who was unchurched about three years ago on the charges of conduct unbecoming a minister. The evidence was a letter alleged to have been written by him to a married woman. Mr. Joyce appealed to the general conference committee, which remanded the case, and yesterday a new committee was appointed to take up the case again. Mr. Joyce is now in the insurance business in this city and lives at 15 East Twenty-first street.

In the report of the board of publications, the Rev. Dr. F. J. Prettyman, chaplain of the United States Senate, recommended that the Rev. Dr. C. D. Harris be re-elected editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist, and stated that the last year was the most prosperous in its history.

In the afternoon a conference of Sunday schools was held in St. Paul's Church, with the Rev. C. S. Stanton, president of the Sunday School Board, in the chair. Those who led in the discussions were the Rev. Dr. C. D. Bulla, superintendent of the Wesley Bible Class department; the Rev. Dr. E. B. Chappell, Sunday school editor, and E. E. French, superintendent of Sunday school supplies, all of Nashville, Tenn. The discussions were on Sunday school organization, teachers and training, and organized Bible classes.

PRAISE FOR MONROEISM.

Argentine Publicist Says Latin-America Will Aid U. S. in Enforcing Doctrine.

Washington, March 26.—"Thanks to the Monroe doctrine, our territorial integrity has been preserved, and that in itself is enough to assure the United States our lasting gratitude. Through it the United States has proved that its citizens are always ready to engage in enterprises of generosity."

Such a declaration of Senor Leopold Lugenes, a leading political writer of Argentina, given out through the Navy League of the United States. Senor Lugenes continues:

"Pan Americanism means nothing without the United States. The first formula of Pan-Americanism, limited to the needs of a policy of defense, is the Monroe doctrine.

"Only the other day in Germany it was said that the efficiency of the Monroe doctrine will be proved by the distance that the guns of the United States can cover. Perhaps they may not reach far enough, considering the enormous growth of European militiarism. But behind the United States are Argentina, Brazil and Chili. The South American States that possess no artillery have other means of defense that would enable them to take part in the common cause if the necessity were to arise. Sooner or later democracy will have to take a firm stand against a decisive attack of despotism, for war means the imminent probability of reaction. We will then be able to render European democracy an inestimable service.

"But come what may, we can afford to wait the military crisis, which is not far distant, with equanimity, secure in the belief that the Monroe doctrine, which yesterday assured our independence, will preserve it to us tomorrow.' '

Fire broke out early yesterday at the wharves of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway at Savannah, Ga. All available apparatus was summoned to the shipping district. The British steamer Farley was badly damaged by the fire. Thousands of barrels of naval stores kept in two large sheds were destroyed. The total damage is estimated at $300,000.
